We cordially invite you to attend "10 - a celebration of royal tastes", in this the year of the Queen's 60th Diamond Jubilee.

As always, this regal event will provide a banquet of gastronomic delights from our personal selection of our finest restaurants presenting an international table of tastes, complemented by superbly matched wines from the antipodes.

In homage to this crowning event of 2012 our array of premium auction items includes a trip to England, with afternoon tea with Baroness Caroline Cox at the House of Lords, dinner at Peter Gordon's Providores restaurant and much more. Restaurants include a number of Auckland's finest such as The French Cafe, The Royal New Zealand Yacht Squadron, Dawsons, Andiamo, Mikano, Pullman and Vevo Foodstore and purveyors of fine wines, Coopers Creek, Mt Beautiful, Rochfort Rees, Villa Maria, Coal Pit, Obsidian, Sileni and Yealands.

At my personal invitation this glorious day will be compered by special guests Lauraine Jacobs and auctioneer Murray Thom.

We look forward to seeing you there. Unfortunately the corgis are prevented from attending, but send their regards.
