4 LOUIS ROEDERER CRISTAL 2009 JEROBOAM (3 LITRE)

Introducing the world's most admired Champagne brand by Drinks International for three consecutive years: Louis Roederer.

From the 2009 vintage, this Cristal has a rich bouquet with hints of zesty fruit, lilies, and light toasted hazelnuts. As it develops in the glass the fruit aromas become more intense and complex. The palate confirms the delicate fruit with a deep, ripe flavour and silky texture, finishing crisply with a pure, mineral balance. Deliciously balanced and charming, it promises to be a magnificent Champagne.

Donated by EuroVintage.

5 COOKS BEACH BACH

What's a kiwi summer without a family road trip to the beach?

Spend a week exploring the incredible Coromandel staying beachside at one of the most beautiful beaches in New Zealand – Cooks Beach.

Suitable for two families, this brand new bach sleeps 10-12 people and is state-of-the-art with large decks on both floors, an outdoor fireplace and shower, plenty of off-street parking and a mooring right out the front for a boat.

During your stay, you'll have the chance to spend a day on the water with an experienced local skipper enjoying activities of your choice (biscuiting, fishing, day trip to Great Mercury Island).

Includes complimentary bubbles and crayfish.

Dates to be mutually agreed. Valid until July 2022.
Donated by Erica and Karim Hussona.

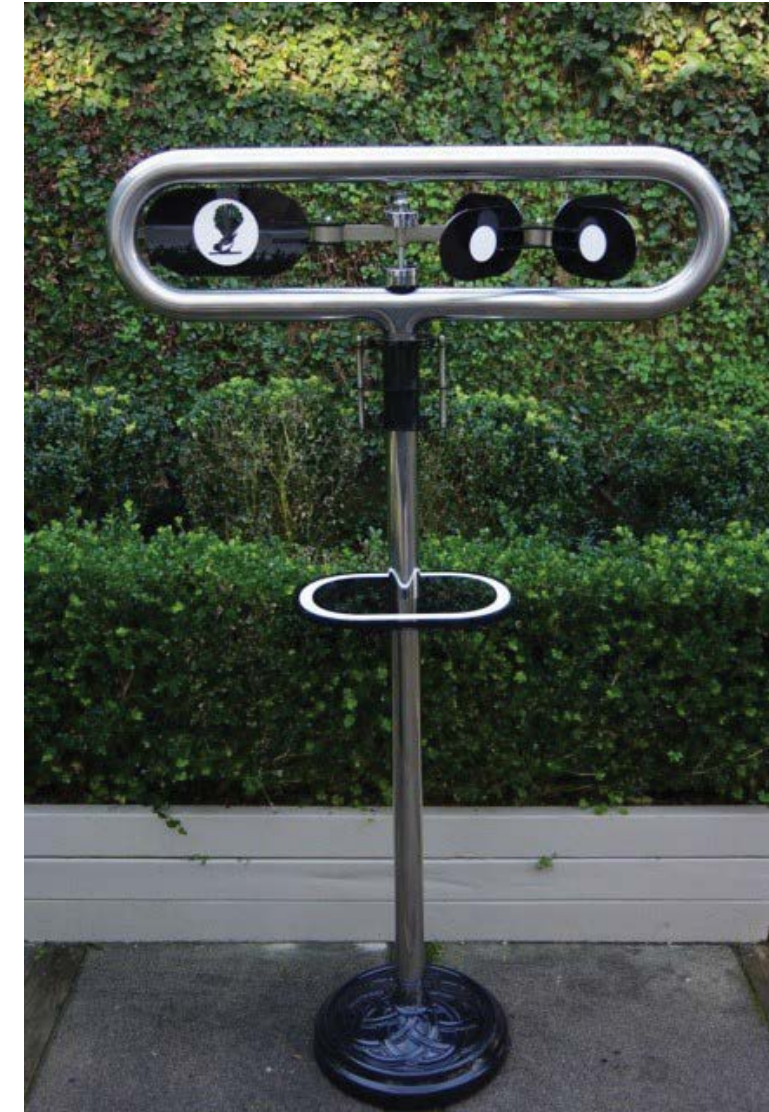

6 'CHASING THE WIND' KINETIC GARDEN SCULPTURE BY GRAEME PARIS

The fantail, like the wind is never still. It flits from perch to perch, not shy of people. Like us, it can chatter incessantly. It graces our gardens and amuses us with aerobatic flying and displays. May this sculpture attract the fantail and other birds to come sit, sing and enhance your garden setting.

Graeme is an award winning sculptural artist, based in Parnell, Auckland.

Dimensions: 1500mm high 900mm wide.

Donated by the artist.
